Important Admission Notice

This is to inform that a few seats are available in MSc (Molecular Biology), MBA (Tourism Travel Management] and MTech (Artificial Intelligence and Data Science) programmes. Since all these programmes are employment and research orientated and of national importance, as a token of encouragement and motivation for the students, the University may provide some financial incentive/stipend. It may be informed to all the eligible and interested candidates to make use of the opportunity.

Those who are willing to join the above mentioned programmes may contact Ms. Pallavi, Consultant CUAP, at Mail Id : pallavipotluricuap@gmail.com or admissionscuap@gmail.com

For more details on the eligibility criteria, please visit the University website: www.cuap.ac.in
