FROM THE VICE CHANCELLOR'S DESK

Warm Greetings to all!

The Central University of Andhra Pradesh continues to shine as a crucible of intellectual and community endeavours, seamlessly integrating the ethos of connectivity, unity, and excellence into our diverse initiatives. Our commitment to holistic education is evident through a multitude of engagements.

The UGC Yuva Manthan Programme's Youth Parliament Competition was a sterling example, encouraging the development of future leaders. The Student Seminar Series provided an invaluable platform for students to present their research, refining their academic acumen. A noteworthy national seminar on Constitutional Provisions: Promises (Political) and People's Experiences spotlighted the integral role of citizens and political entities in preserving our constitutional values.

In pursuit of career enhancement, the Placement Cell orchestrated a successful two-day Campus Placement Drive for ADP, a global leader in human capital management solutions. Simultaneously, the Skill Development Cell in collaboration with Fevicryl, conducted an intensive five-day Art Workshop, equipping students with hands-on artistic expertise.

Our dedication to social responsibility was exemplified through a Cyber Awareness Campaign at Mandal Parishad Upper Primary School, Reddipalli, during Cyber Awareness Month 2024, educating students on cybersecurity threats and preventive measures. Our Outreach Activity engaged school children with interactive games, cultural events, and enlightening sessions, raising awareness for a sustainable today and tomorrow, culminating in a Plantation Drive. The NSS Unit-I organised the Orientation Programme for the new volunteers and led the Swachhata Hi Sewa campaign in honour of Mahatma Gandhi's 155th birth anniversary. A debate on Environment and Human Rights was also held to mark World Human Rights Day, underscoring the university's commitment to environmental stewardship and human rights.

In collaboration with the Centre of Excellence for Studies in Classical Telugu (CESCT), we hosted an international seminar exploring the social dimensions of Telugu Shataka literature. A national seminar on Digital Transformation and the Future of India's Economy, sponsored by the Indian Council for Social Science Research (ICSSR), Hyderabad, illuminated pressing economic issues. Furthermore, students were enlightened on protecting their innovations through a workshop on Understanding Intellectual Property Rights. We launched CineFrames, a film club emphasising the cultural impact of cinema in the digital era. The newly inaugurated initiative of the Literary Club: the English Study Circle further strengthened our academic discourse.

In celebration of Srinivasa Ramanujan's contributions, we held a Math Expo, showcasing the applications of mathematical tools in Artificial Intelligence. Mental Health Day was observed to promote mental health awareness and combat stigma.

These initiatives collectively embody University's unwavering dedication to nurturing academic excellence, skill development, and social responsibility, uniting our community in pursuit of shared aspirations.

Ad Meliora- "Toward better things." With the strong foundation of education and values imparted by the University, our students are equipped to strive for and achieve great things in society.

PROF. S.A. KORI

EDITOR'S NOTE

Dear Readers,

Greetings!

This edition of our newsletter shines a spotlight on the vibrant academic and extracurricular activities that have been enriching our community, showcasing the dedication and achievements of both faculty and students. Our faculty members are actively engaged in professional development, participating in enriching workshops and organising impactful national seminars, conferences, and workshops. The University has been continuing to work with their commitment and inspiration. These endeavours not only enhance their own expertise but also contribute significantly to the intellectual growth of our students.

In addition, beyond academics, our students are demonstrating a remarkable balance of academic pursuits and extracurricular involvement. From organising impactful blood donation camps and promoting wellness through yoga sessions through NSS, students also actively participated in the discussion forums of the newly established Film Club as a part of media learning. Art club is an edition through which the students excel in their creativity by actively participating in painting, craft, art etc. Outreach Activity Club, Literary Club: The English Study Circle are other clubs initiated in the University through which several curricular and extracurricular activities are being organised.

The students are actively shaping a vibrant and enriching campus environment. Students also successfully secured their placements in esteemed organisations emerging as a testament to the quality of education and the holistic development fostered within our institution.

We look forward to witnessing and celebrating many more such accomplishments in future.

DR PARIMALA G. KAMATAR

NANDI INSTALLATION CEREMONY

The Nandi Installation Ceremony took place at the main entrance gate of the CUAP Janthalur Campus on 25 November 2024, marking a significant moment in the university's history. The Hon'ble Vice Chancellor graced the occasion as the Chief Guest, highlighting the importance of the Nandi idol in symbolising duty, service, simplicity, and power.

The Nandi symbol holds special significance for the people from the region, given the deep cultural and historical ties to Lepakshi. The Lepakshi Nandi, known for its majestic presence and intricate carvings, is a source of pride for the region and its residents. The addition of the Nandi idol to the university campus serves as a tribute to this rich heritage and reinforces the cultural identity of the regional communities.

The ceremony saw a huge turnout, with an impressive number of students and faculty members in attendance. The idol, an epitome of the revered Lepakshi Nandi, was installed amidst traditional rituals and vibrant cultural performances.

The programme, coordinated by Vamsi Krishna, Tripti Kashyap, Debasis Gogoi, Devaraju, and others, concluded with a vote of thanks.

CINEFRAMES FILM SCREENINGS

The CineFrames Film Club organised various film screenings, including The Terminal on 30 October 2024, Pink on 22 November 2024, and Ullozhukku on 6 December 2024, each followed by transcendental thought-provoking discussions. These events have brought together film enthusiasts to enjoy diverse cinematic experiences. For students, it wasn't just about being passive viewers; it was an opportunity to be soaked into films that push boundaries, challenge ideas, and make one think twice about the choices that they make in life.

These screenings do so much more than entertain—they spark conversations that transcend cinema, offer fresh perspectives, and connect the dots between academic learning and real-world experiences. CineFrames isn't just showcasing films; it's creating a space where cinema becomes a tool for learning, reflection, and growth, making it an essential part of the university experience.

WORKSHOP ON UNDERSTANDING INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

The Department of Management hosted a workshop on Understanding Intellectual Property Rights: Why students should care about protecting their ideas on 20 November 2024. Ashok Doppalapudi, Director of IPR Tribe and CEO at IP Bank highlighted the importance of trademarks, patents, and patent assignee rights. Through real-world examples, he educated students on the significance of IPR in protecting and maximising the potential of their innovative ideas.

A PAINTING COMPETITION CONDUCTED ON THE OCCASION OF JANJATIYA GAURAV VARSH

In a spectacular celebration of India's diverse and vibrant tribal culture, the Central University of Andhra Pradesh successfully conducted the Jan Jatiya Gaurav Varsh Painting Competition on 22 November 2024 with the esteemed support of Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Prof. S.A. Kori. Students from various departments showcased their creativity through captivating artworks, emphasising the significance of preserving our rich heritage.

The event was led by Dr Garikapati Gurajada and Dr Vinod Kumar Yata, with dedicated student volunteers Bhukya Shivani Naik, Bonam Blessy, and Pulathota Venkata Sai Sree Harsha playing a pivotal role. The competition underscored the importance of tribal heritage and artistic expression, leaving a lasting impression on all participants.

A CLEANLINESS DRIVE ON THE OCCASION OF JANJATIYA GAURAV VARSH

In homage to the 4th Janjatiya Gaurav Diwas, the university venerated the birth anniversary of Bhagwan Birsa Munda, a legendary freedom fighter. With esteemed support from Vice Chancellor Prof. S.A. Kori and Dean Prof. C. Sheela Reddy, a Cleanliness Drive transpired on 23 November 2024, steered by Dr Thota Siva and mentored by Dr Garikapati Gurajada. NSS volunteers and students from various departments ardently partook in this significant event.

Bhagwan Birsa Munda's indomitable legacy as a tribal activist and freedom fighter poignantly reminds us of the sacrifices rendered by unsung heroes. This drive eloquently celebrated his enduring contributions to our nation's history.
