Important Information to the Students

1. Programme: BA (Honours) English
2. Eligibility: +2 level of education (Intermediate/ CBSE/ ICSE/ HSC or equivalent in Science/Arts/Commerce/other streams)
3. The minimum duration for completing the Undergraduate Programme is eight semesters (four academic years) or as per the amendments made by the regulatory bodies from time to time.
4. A student should attend at least 75% of the classes, seminars, and practicals in each course of study.
5. All the courses in the programme carry a Continuous Internal Assessment (CIA) component for a maximum of 40 marks and a Semester-End Examination (SEE) for a maximum of 60 marks. The minimum pass mark for a course is 40%.
6. Students are given 3 Continuous Internal Assessment (CIA) tests in each course every semester, from which the best 2 performances are considered for calculate the marks in CIA. The academic unit maintains a record of continuous assessment. The 3 internal tests are conducted for a maximum of 15 Marks each; out of the 3 tests, the scores of the best 2 tests are considered for 30 marks. Out of the remaining 10 marks, 5 marks are awarded for assignments, class presentations, and class participation of the students and the remaining 5 marks are awarded for punctuality and student attendance.
7. A student should pass separately in both the CIA and the SEE, i.e., a student should secure a minimum of 16 (40% of 40) out of 40 marks in the CIA and a minimum of 24 (40% of 60) out of 60 marks in the Semester-End Examination.

Marks for the Attendance will be calculated as follows:

| S. No | Attendance (%) | Marks |
|--------------|-----------------------|--------------|
| 1            | 95% or more           | 5            |
| 2            | 90-94%                | 4            |
| 3            | 85-89%                | 3            |
| 4            | 80-84%                | 2            |
| 5            | 75-79%                | 1            |

8. A student failing to secure the minimum pass marks in the CIA is not allowed to take the semester-end examination of that course. S/he must redo the course by attending special classes for that course and get a pass percentage in the internal tests to become eligible to take the semester-end examination.
9. A student failing a course due to lack of attendance should redo the course.
10. Re-evaluation applies only to the theory papers and does not apply to the other components such as dissertations.
11. An on-campus elective course is offered only if a minimum of ten students or 40% of the students registered, whichever is higher, exercise their option for that course.
12. Assessment Pattern: 40% internal (formative) evaluation [two best out of three tests (for a maximum of 15 marks each = 30 marks); and seminar /assignments/ attendance (10 marks)] and 60% summative evaluation [Semester-End Examination].

Semester-End Examination

Maximum Marks: 60

Time: 3 Hours

Dissertation/ Project Report

BA (Honours) English

The BA (Honours) English programme offers an engaging and holistic study of English literature, language, and communication, designed to prepare students for a wide range of academic and professional pathways. Rooted in a strong foundation of literary analysis, critical theory, and cultural contexts- including a dedicated focus on Indian Knowledge Systems- the curriculum exposes students to a rich tapestry of global and Indian authors, genres, and discourses.

Through carefully designed courses in literature and language studies, the programme sharpens students' abilities to read critically, write persuasively, and communicate effectively across diverse contexts. A robust component of communication skills training and introductory courses in translation studies further empower students to navigate and contribute to today's dynamic media, corporate, and cultural landscapes.

Beyond preparing students for advanced studies in English literature and language, the programme equips them with transferable skills highly valued in fields such as business, law, journalism, publishing, teaching, creative industries, and content development. Students gain practical experience in research, scholarly writing, public speaking, and linguistic analysis, fostering the confidence and competence needed for both academia and the professional world.

To support each student's unique academic and career aspirations, the programme offers the flexibility to pursue Minor Programmes in Political Science, Economics, Psychology, or Computer Science and Artificial Intelligence- powerful combinations that open pathways to interdisciplinary careers and further studies in social sciences, humanities, technology, and beyond. By nurturing intellectual curiosity, critical thinking, and effective communication, the BA (Honours) English programme empowers graduates to engage with diverse perspectives, address contemporary challenges, and contribute meaningfully as informed citizens and professionals in an increasingly interconnected world.

Programme Objectives:

- To enable the students to understand the significance of literary works in their social, cultural, and ideological contexts and holistically acquire mastery of the discipline;
- To help the students explore the diversity of languages and literatures throughout the history of the world;
- To guide the students to appreciate the hermeneutic engagement of creative writings/texts with gender, race, region, and identity across various contexts, thereby promoting their critical thinking and cultural awareness;
- To facilitate the student's cultivation of deep admiration for the influential role of literature And language, encouraging continuous engagement with literary works and the exploration of varied perspectives and voices;
- To help the student enhance their effective communication abilities in different professional contexts to connect empathetically with diverse audiences, fostering understanding and empathy in personal interactions; and
- To train the student in innovative problem-solving approaches to tackle complex challenges encountered in academic, professional, and societal domains, contributing positively to a diverse and interconnected global community.

Programme Outcomes:

The successful completion of the BA (Honours) English programme will enable the students to:

- Demonstrate a nuanced understanding of literary works within their socio-cultural contexts, applying critical analytical skills to interpret and evaluate texts effectively;
- Exhibit proficiency in written and oral communication, with the ability to articulate complex ideas and engage meaningfully with diverse audiences in variety of contexts;
- Apply research methodologies and academic conventions to undertake scholarly investigations, producing well-structured written assignments and presentations;
- Engage in interdisciplinary discourse, drawing connections between literature and various fields of study to enrich understanding and foster intellectual curiosity;
- Demonstrate cultural competence and empathy in personal interactions, appreciating diverse perspectives and fostering inclusive dialogue within local and global communities;
- Employ innovative problem-solving strategies to address complex academic, professional, and societal challenges, integrating interdisciplinary perspectives to propose effective solutions; and
- Utilize technology and digital resources effectively for research, communication, and presentation purposes, adapting to evolving technological landscapes in English studies.

Programme Structure

- The BA (Hons) English programme is based on the UGC Credit Framework (NEP 2020).
- Major and Minor: The programme consists of two parts- Major (English) and Minor (based on the student's choice)
- Major: A Major is the student's main specialisation. For example, a student who joins the BA (Hons) English programme does an English Major.
- Minor: A Minor is a secondary discipline that the student pursues in addition to their Major. It is the student's secondary specialisation. A Minor enables the student to explore other areas of study and build alternative areas of interest. The student can do a Minor in any area designated as a Minor. In other words, the student can choose the prescribed number of courses from any other discipline (Undergraduate Programme) as their Minor. For example, a student majoring in English may minor in Psychology.

Minors available to BA (Hons.) English students and BA English Minor offered to students from other Programmes are also presented in this document.

Types of Courses

The following types of courses are offered under CBCS:

CC (Core Course): A Core Course is a compulsory course. The student does 21 such courses over the eight semesters of the BA programme.

AEC (Ability Enhancement Course): The student does four AECs- one in Semester I [Modern Indian Language (other than English)- I (online /offline)]; one in Semester II [Understanding Disabilities]; one in Semester III [Modern Indian Language (other than English)- II (MOOCs/offline)]; and one in Semester IV (Building Mathematical Ability).

IDE (Interdisciplinary Elective): The student takes three introductory-level courses in a discipline of their choice in Semesters I, II, and III. These courses are intended to broaden the intellectual experience and form part of liberal arts and science education.

These courses are done online (MOOCs*).

SEC (Skill Enhancement Course): The student completes three SECs: one in Semester I [Modern English Grammar and Pronunciation], one in Semester II [Academic Writing], and one in Semester III [IT Skills and Artificial Intelligence].

VAC (Value-Added Course): The student takes three VACs- one in Semester I [IKS (Indian Knowledge System): MOOCs]; one in Semester II [Ecology and Environment]; and one in Semester IV [Climate Change].

*MOOCs (Massive Open Online Courses): MOOCs are online learning courses accessed through the internet. The student is encouraged to pursue online courses through the Swayam platform wherever recommended.

|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Course Objectives:

- To introduce students to the richness of Indian literature across languages, regions, and traditions through English translations.
- To contextualise literary texts within their historical, cultural, and philosophical frameworks- from devotional voices to nationalist and post-independence narratives.
- To critically examine the role of translation in shaping literary canons and enabling cross-cultural dialogues.
- To explore a diversity of genres (poetry, novel, drama) and appreciate their contribution to the formation of Indian literary and national identity.

Course Outcomes:

By the end of this course, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of major Indian literary traditions from classical to modern periods through translated texts.
- Analyse texts for their thematic, aesthetic, and socio-political significance, with attention to issues of caste, gender, class, and nationalism.
- Critically evaluate the role of translation as a medium of literary transmission, preservation, and reinterpretation.
- Engage with Indian literature comparatively, connecting regional voices with broader national and global discourses.
